TOWNE'S VALEDICTORY

An Argument in the Senate Favoring Philippine Independence.

PETITION FROM FEDERAL FILIPINOS

Proceedings in House and Senate and Forecast of Measures That Will Be Considered in Congress During the Current Week.

Washington, Jan. 28.—When the senate convened the presiding officer, Mr. Frye, called attention to the following cablegram, which was read:

Manilla, Jan. 28.—President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington.—Accessions to Federal party by thousands in all parts of archipelago. Attitude of hitherto irreconcilable press and the general public opinion show that the labors of party to bring peace will soon be crowned with success. Until now political parties have attempted formation on plans more or less questioning American sovereignty. Our platform makes main plank sovereignty of United States, with liberty to each citizen to pursue peacefully his political ideas. Hour of peace has sounded. On our platform are grouped many Filipinos of hitherto irreconcilable ideas, but some more obstinate decline to join, for though willing to accept sovereignty of United States, the prospect of indefinite continuance of military government makes them distrust purposes of the United States and delays their submission. Adjournment of present congress without giving president authority to establish purely civil government with usual powers and postponement for at least a year of such government until new congress, will certainly confirm this distrust. Directory of the Federal party believes conferring such authority on president would inspire confidence, hasten acceptance of sovereignty of union and the coming of peace. Directory therefore prays both houses of congress to authorize President McKinley to establish civil government whenever he believes it opportune.

Senator Towne's Speech.

After the disposal of routine business Mr. Towne (Minn.) was recognized for a speech, which was to be at once his maiden effort and his valedictory. The galleries were filled and senators gave him close attention, while in the rear of the senate was a circle of representatives, who came over from the house to hear him.

In opening his address Mr. Towne referred to the petition presented to the senate a few days ago by 2,000 Filipinos for a cessation of hostilities and for the granting of independence to the people of the Philippines. He maintained that it would prove "a quickening appeal to the ancient spirit of the republic, or its rejection must dedicate the twentieth century to a reaction prejudicial, if not fatal, to free institutions." While discussing events which led the United States forces to the Philippines, Mr. Towne referred with particularity to the charge that Aguinaldo had sold his country to the Spaniards for a bribe. He declared the accusation "gratuitous in its calumny, when we consider that the official publications of our own government contradict and destroy it. We were in alliance with the Filipinos, an alliance sought by ourselves, availed of by us for our own advantage and finally to our everlasting shame in the estimation of honorable men, repudiated by us when we found it no longer necessary, and when lust of empire had so blunted our moral sensibilities that we could mount from an act of perfidy to the grand larceny of a nation."

Referring to Admiral Dewey's denial that he had ever treated the insurgents as allies, Mr. Towne said sarcastically: "I fear the honest sailor's terminology has suffered from recent contact with the nice discriminations of administration diplomacy."

Discussing the acquisition of the Philippines Senator Towne said: "It is not easy to fix with accuracy the time when the design was formed to take forcible possession of the Philippine islands, nor to ascertain the mind in which 'gloomy recesses' this enterprise of sacrilege and violence first gathered form and pressure. There has indeed been a disposition by its most illustrious sponsors, as if their prophetic souls already trembled at the accusation of after ages, to impute the dubious responsibility to Providence itself. No man, no party, no nation, can escape accountability for actions by attributing their origin to any other source than human motives and human judgment. The policy of the administration toward the Filipinos must be justified, if ever justified at all, in the forum of the reason and the conscience of mankind."

Mr. Towne declared that upon the arrival of General Merritt at Manila a distinct change of tone was observable between the United States officials and the Filipinos, the altered attitude being so marked as to force the conclusion that "part of General Merritt's prearranged task was to maneuver out of an awkward friendliness with Aguinaldo, and thus to reach a footing for the convenient development of some secret policy with which he had come fresh-freighted from Washington. If there was doubt of the pre-arrangement of the plan, it was banished by the president himself. The third article of the protocol with Spain reads: 'The United States will occupy and hold the city, bay and harbor of Manila, pending the conclusion of a treaty of peace, which shall determine the control, disposition and government of the Philippines.' Yet, despite that definite provision, the president, issued, Dec. 21, 1898, his famous 'benevolent assimilation' proclamation. The dilemma is: Either that article of protocol does not mean what it says, or the president of the United States in causing the issuance of the proclamation to which I have referred broke the pledged faith of this government. It is not agreeable to me to use this language, but I devoutly believe that the republic is at the gravest crisis of its history, and I feel that a necessary preliminary to its getting safe OUT is to cause the people to realize how it came to get IN. If we are bent on slaughter, let it be in open guise. If we lust for this people's land, let us not glaze our enterprise with false and sinister pretense. Rather let us boldly raise the sombre flag of international piracy, whistle scruple down the wind, and then close in upon our feeble victim to the cry of 'loot and glory.'"

Mr. Towne maintained that the United States was under the obligation of circumstances, if not indeed of actual promise, to grant independence to the Filipinos and that among nations, the former was quite as binding as the latter. He argued at length in support of his contention that the Filipinos were perfectly capable of governing themselves, pointing out that 80 per cent of the population of Luzon can read and write, and holding that the government established by Aguinaldo was strong, symmetrical and progressive, even in the difficult and disturbing conditions which surrounded it. He declared that the Filipino statesmen "would creditably meet almost any emergency of administration in even the most advanced government and would have dignified and ornamented the early struggles for nationality of any people known to history. There is not the slightest ground for believing that any appreciable impression has been made upon the determination of the Philippine people to resist us to the end. There is no evidence that any strong native pro-American element has any existence whatever. As the result of two years of wasting war, we occupy about one five-hundredth part of that archipelago. No district is really pacified. We hold the ground our troops stand on, practically nothing more. During the campaign of 1900 it was a favorite accusation against the opponents of the administration policy that they were keeping alive a smouldering 'rebellion' in the Philippines. The newspapers and magazines made much of this foolish argument, and in many a pulpit, where the gospel of the bullet had supplanted the Christianity of the Bible, the pious anathema rose to heaven on the wings of prayer."

After the Election.

Mr. Towne declared that after the elections the resistance in the Philippines increased, and that it had been announced in the senate within a week that 30,000 American soldiers would be needed in the islands for an indefinite period. Is it not clear that the way of duty is equally the path of profit? Do we need to own people in order to trade with them? Is it not better to allow our customers to live, to have their good will and to leave them the means of payment, than to kill the strongest of them, to earn the hatred of the survivors and to impoverish all by desolating war? It is better to trade liberty to the Filipinos for security to the United States in the islands than to force a sullen unwillingness into slavish compliance with some of our customs by the employment of an army of 100,000 men. It is a habit of the defenders of the administration policy to sneer at the term 'imperialism,' but it could not be sneered away. You can have imperialism without an emperor, just as the Romans found that they could have a more royal master though he did not wear the hated name of king. The retention of the Philippines will commit us to the whole program of empire. There is a law among nations, as Hanley says there is among men, by which a bad appetite grows by what it feeds on. No nation in history has resisted it and to every nation that has yielded to it it has brought disaster. Athens succumbed to it and perished. Rome indulged the mad ambition and followed it to her doom. It was the ruin of Venice. It will work the destruction of England, in my opinion, ere the close of this fateful century. Are we, with all the lessons of history before us, to prove the next victim of this insatiable passion, the greatest, most lamentable, most gratuitous sacrifice in all human tragedy? I do not wish to convey the impression that in my opinion the present policy will at one fell swoop convert this republic into an empire in fact. But I do say that the seeds of empire lurk in this policy and that time and favoring environment will and must bring them to their flower and fruit unless we make a seasonable prevention."

Moses Clapp, the successor of Mr. Towne, entered the chamber during Mr. Towne's speech. Immediately upon the conclusion of Mr. Towne's speech Mr. Nelson presented the credentials of Mr. Clapp and the oath of office was administered.

Mr. Jones (Ark.) presented the credentials of his colleague, Mr. Berry, for the term beginning in March.

Appropriation bills, war revenue reduction, ship subsidy and the Philippines will occupy attention in the senate this week. Interest in the Philippine question is increased by the president's request for early legislation, but it is believed that little will be accomplished in that regard at this session, especially not until after the report of the Taft commission is printed.

Early Settlement Expected.

Omaha, Jan. 28.—Adjutant General Michie received a telegram from Lieutenant Nixon, in command of troop A, Eighth cavalry, from Henrietta, I. T., stating that he expected United States Marshal Bennett there, and that he had arranged for a talk with Crazy Snake. Also that he anticipated an early settlement of the uprising.

GOING TO HIS DEATH.

Neely Does Not Expect to Last Long in a Cuban Prison.

HE HAD OPPORTUNITIES TO STEAL.

Says He Made Money Legitimately and Intimates That the Stamp Funds Were Committed in Washington—His Statement.

New York, Jan. 28.—Charles W. F. Neely, the postal official who has just been taken to Cuba for trial, in a dictated statement describes in detail how after an issue of stamps had been made for the Cuban service the surcharged stamps were destroyed. For the purpose of conducting the destruction Director General Rathbone appointed a committee, he says, composed of himself (Neely), Auditor Reeves of the registry division, and Marfield, an Ohio man.

It has been alleged that Neely stole many thousand dollars worth of stamps by burning in their place packages of waste paper. In reference to this charge, Neely says about these stamps: "The man who says they were not destroyed, or who says that I said the packages contained only brown paper tells a damnable lie. Save for one or two packages they were in their original form, the seal of the department unbroken, and if they contained only brown paper, the fraud was committed in Washington before the stamps were shipped to Cuba." Further on Neely says: "Had I been desirous of stealing from the government why did I not steal when there was a chance for me to steal something worth the while? I had plenty of opportunities to do so. At one time I could have pocketed over $1,000,000. On one of my trips to the states on official business I brought with me on the transport over $900,000 in gold. I had at the same time in my pockets certificates of deposit made out in my name and individual capacity on the Seventh National bank, the government depository for postoffice funds, for over $300,000. That made over $1,200,000 that was as completely in my possession as though it were my own."

Neely ends his statement in the following words: "The wild stories of extravagant speculation on my part while in Cuba are all the purest fiction. That I made money while in Cuba I have never denied. But I made it legitimately, and it was the product of the private funds which I took to Cuba with me. My innocence can be proved, but I never expect to be able to prove it. The opportunity will not be given me, and I am prepared to be sacrificed and to receive a sentence of from 8 to 10 years. All idea of obtaining justice has left me and I have no thought now than that my fate may be decreed as quickly as possible. I can not stand this strain, and when I go to a Cuban prison it will be with the knowledge that I have only a few months more to live, for no American can stand confinement in those tropical prisons. But sooner, or later, I expect the facts in this case to be made known and substantiated, and when that day comes the public will confess that it prejudged me, and that instead of being guilty I was innocent of the crimes laid at my door."

Drainage Canal Decision.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States supreme court rendered an opinion in the case of the Chicago Drainage canal, overruling the demurrers filed in the case by the state of Illinois, and the Chicago drainage canal district board. The proceeding was brought by the state of Missouri against the state of Illinois and the drainage board, the and sought being to prevent the use of the canal because of its supposed pollution of the drinking water of St. Louis. The effect of the decision is to sustain the contention of the state of Missouri. The opinion was handed down by Justice Shiras, the chief justice and Justices Harlan and White united in a dissenting opinion.

FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

Exiled American Editor Sent Home Under Guard—Legislation. Manila, Jan. 28.—General Funston telegraphs that practically all the organized Filipinos in his districts have been dispersed with the exception of disconnected bands in the mountains. In the island of Panay 65 natives surrendered to United States authorities at Cebu.

George T. Rice, editor of the Daily Bulletin, who was ordered by General MacArthur to be deported because of the publication in his paper of allegations against Lieutenant Commander William Braumersreuther, captain of the port, sailed Monday. It was ordered that he be held as a prisoner until his arrival at San Francisco.

The Philippine commission passed the act annulling that portion of the Spanish code which disqualified judges and magistrates from trying certain cases on account of alleged incompetency. The act declares that the judges are incompetent only when peculiarly interested in the litigation or related to the litigant. The general, criminal and civil codes are almost completed. The hearing of the municipal government bill is finished and the measure will be enacted Wednesday. Only two natives objected to the church property taxation feature, and no objection was entered on behalf of the church or the other organizations.

Crown Prince a Barter Knight.

Crowe, Isle of Wight, Jan. 28.—The crown prince of Germany, Frederick William, was invested with the Order of the Garter by King Edward VII. The investiture occurred in the council chamber of Osborne House and was a brilliant function. The high officers of the household, military and civil functionaries, and the emperor's entourage, including a party from the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, were present, all in full uniform. While the crown prince knelt before the king to receive the insignia his majesty addressed a few cordial words to the prince, and then turning to Emperor William in touching terms he thanked him for his visit at this time of sorrow and bereavement, and dwelt on the personal and other ties uniting the two countries, Germany and Great Britain.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—William F. Hunter Law society of the Ohio State university, Columbus; Toledo Laundry and Wood Working company, Toledo, $15,000; Trinital and Bermudez Asphalt Paving company, Cleveland, $120,000; Implement Manufacturing company, Marion, increase from $25,000 to $50,000; Angelo Andrew Paint and Varnish company, Akron, $3,000; Superior Land company, East Liverpool, $25,000.

Temperance in Kansas.

Topeka, Jan. 28.—Between 400 and 500 delegates are in attendance at the annual convention of the State Temperance Union, which held its first meeting Monday. Legislation and the work of reorganizing the state for agitation and law enforcement are among the subjects that will be discussed.

FERRELL'S FATE FIXED

His Life Will Be Snuffed Out in the Electroconvulsion Chair.

HAS ONLY ONE MORE MONTH TO LIVE

Governor Nash Refuses to Commute Death Sentence to Imprisonment For Life—Friday March 1 Is The Date Set For Execution.

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—Rosslyn H. Ferrell, who murdered Charles Lane, the express messenger, and robbed the safe to obtain means for furnishing forth his marriage, must pay the ultimate penalty for his atrocious crime. Governor Nash has approved the finding of the state board of pardons in refusing to commute the death sentence to imprisonment for life. In passing upon Ferrell's application for clemency Governor Nash says that the jury having heard the testimony, the board of pardons having reviewed the evidence, 17 men have passed judgment in the premises. Notwithstanding this, and with no wish to shirk responsibility, the governor says he has examined the record in vain for any mitigating fact. In conclusion the governor says:

"The important object to be attained by the punishment of crime is the protection of society. Thousands of men are engaged in this country on railroad cars. These men are monthly, if not weekly, assaulted, robbed and not infrequently killed. The safety of this class of people requires that where one as guilty of this crime, he shall suffer the most severe penalty known to the law. If I should show mercy to Ferrell I would expect that my act would encourage other bad men to undertake like crimes, hoping that they, too, would escape. If I should grant his prayer, I would expect that when other revolting crimes are perpetrated in the future, lynchings would possibly follow. The protection of the public, and the preservation of peace and order in our state, demand that the just judgment of the court in this case shall be executed."

Ferrell's attorneys recently stated they will not take the case to the supreme court, so that there is little likelihood that Ferrell will escape the chair Friday, March 1, the date fixed for his execution.

Peace Prevails.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Mr. Puigdo, the Venezuelan charge d'affaires, received advices by mail announcing that a peaceful condition of affairs prevailed. It is learned that the claim of Venezuela to Pato Island, which the Venezuelan governor, Augusto, took from seven British subjects, is contested by Great Britain, and that the question of the nation to which the island belongs has never been settled. This will have an important bearing in connection with the representations the British government will make to Venezuela. Great Britain, if she insists on her sovereignty over the island, can declare the recent seizure of a gunboat an act of war and demand instant reparation. American interests, it is officially said, are well protected, the Lancaster being at La Guaira and the Scorpion at Port of Spain, which is at the mouth of the Orinoco.

Armour Estate.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The estate of the late Philip D. Armour, according to a petition for letters testamentary filed in probate court, is valued at $15,000,000. Of this $14,500,000 is ready. This estate is distributed among the members of the Armour family, the legatees named in the petition being Malvina G. Armour, widow; J. Ogden Armour, son; Philip D. and Lester Armour, grandsons. The executors named in the will are the Armour family. The Armour Institute is not included among the legatees, but it is said Mr. Armour made provision for the future of the institute by transferring property before his death.

Proclaiming the King.

London, Jan. 28.—The ceremony of proclaiming King Edward VII as king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and emperor of India continues in all the centers of the kingdom. The impressive function took place in the royal borough of Windsor at noon. Thousands witnessed the historic proceedings. According to present arrangement the United States is the only country which will not be specially represented at the funeral of Queen Victoria. The United States embassy has received no instructions so far, and it is supposed that only Ambassador Choate and his staff will be present.

Helena, Mont., Jan. 28.—The vote for United States senator Monday resulted as follows: Mantle (R.), 29; Frank (D.), 22; scattering, 34.

The Democratic primary in Fayette County will be a rather slim one as there was no opposition in most of the races, and where there was no opposition the committee has formally declared the candidates the nominees. The ticket will be completed January 31st.

The editor of the Daily Bulletin, published at Manila, has been ordered "deported" by Gen. MacArthur for charging one of our "colonial" officers at that place with collecting illegal and excessive pilotage and moorage fees. Imperialism, it seems, is making rapid strides. Free speech doesn't go in empires.

The grand jury of Whiteley County has indicted eleven of the Shotwells and their associates for dynamiting the store of the White's at Corbin, and causing the death of Susan Cox and Sutton Faris. Now if the entire gang can only be landed in the pen or sent to the scaffold, it would have a tendency to check the outlawry in that Republican stronghold.

"GOEBEL buccaneers seek to cast further suspicion on County Clerk Chinn," exclaims the Lexington Leader, in speaking of State Inspector Hines' investigation of Mr. Chinn's accounts last Saturday. Only a few months ago Mr. Chinn was found about $10,000 short, and, of course it is just awful that any more "suspicion" should be cast on him. And what right have the State officials to interfere with his affairs? The Leader evidently imagines that Mr. Chinn's office is his own "private snap."

GOEBEL REWARD COMMISSION.

Out of the $100,000 Fund, About $7,000 Reported Expended So Far.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 28.—The Goebel reward commission is holding a meeting with Gen. Joseph H. Lewis, B. W. Bradburn and John K. Henrick present. Numerous expense accounts in connection with the recent trials were allowed, but no business of importance was transacted.

According to the reports given out the total appropriations by the commission up to the present is something like $7,000, paid out of $100,000 appropriation provided by the Legislature.

COCHRAN FOR JUDGE.

The Bill Dividing Kentucky Into Two Federal Districts Will Likely be Adopted This Week.

[Washington Special to Enquirer.]

Judge A. M. J. Cochran and W. H. Wadsworth, of Maysville, Ky., arrived here Sunday. Judge Cochran will probably be appointed by President McKinley as the additional United States District Judge for the Eastern district of Kentucky as soon as the bill now before the Senate Committee on Judiciary becomes a law.

Despite the fight that has been made by citizens of various towns in the Eastern district for the honor of the location of the court, which it was thought would have a deleterious effect upon the passage of the bill, it is likely that it will become a law during the present week and that the appointment of the new set of court officers will follow shortly.

The only formidable rival for the honor of the new Judgeship is former Governor Bradley. The latter was widely known as an ultra administrationist during his tenure of office and for that reason there seemed to be grounds for thinking that he would be honored by the President. Judge Cochran, while a loyal McKinley follower, has not aroused the antagonisms and engendered the animosities that Bradley necessarily excited during his turbulent term as the head of Kentucky politics. In the interest of harmony, and to even up a few old scores, it is confidently predicted that the President will appoint Cochran.

IT'S IMPOSSIBLE

To Disprove Fact—It is Decidedly Easy to Verify Maysville Opinion.

Nothing by way of an introduction could be added to the experiences and opinions given below which could increase their value. Maysville people can be safely left to draw their own conclusions based on such convincing proof as this citizen offers. What is there lacking in evidence like this to satisfy a dyed-in-the-wool doubting Thomas?

THE LEADING GROCER,

Wholesale and Retail.

In "A Royal Box" to be given at the opera house Feb. 6th, the real audience will impersonate the supposed audience of the play performed within the play. The Prince of Wales and his friends occupy one of the real boxes which, decorated with the Royal Coat of Arms, is supposed to be the "Royal Box" at Drury Lane. The stage manager comes before the real curtain and announces that although the leading actor is indisposed he will nevertheless endeavor to please his audience. The curtain rises on the balcony scene of "Romeo and Juliet." The Romeo addresses Juliet but thinks of the occupants of the "Royal Box," the Countess whom he loves, and the Prince of whom he is jealous. Ultimately he casts aside the role of Romeo and in his own person denounces the royal profligate to the public, bringing the curtain down in confusion.

Hon. John W. Yerkes well sell his home and all his household effects at Danville on February 6. This is taken to mean that he will make Washington his permanent home for several years. Harry Giovannoli, who will be Mr. Yerkes' private Secretary, will also sell his property and live in Washington city. He will continue his newspaper work, but at leisure moments.

Mr. George L. Cox is improving after an illness of a week or two.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters cured me, and, although seventy-three years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite and gives perfect health. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

OLD BETHEL CHURCH.

The Scene of a Happy Reunion of the Savage Family Sunday, January 20th.

Many who read the BULLETIN will no doubt be glad to hear of another grand rally on the sacred grounds of Old Bethel Church and within her endeared walls. Sunday, the 20th of January, 1901, was a day long to be remembered by the family and friends of the late John P. and Margaret Savage. Dr. J. A. Savage, the only son living, who has been preaching in Texas for the past twenty years, is in Kentucky on a visit. There was an appointment made for him to preach in "Old Bethel"—old only in memory as it has been repainted, repapered and refurnished until it smacks a good deal of city airs—on the 20th when there would be a reunion of family and friends. Many members of the family were present and a host of life-long friends. The day was a matchless one—rarely is a more beautiful day seen. Everybody seemed anxious to reach there on time. From 10 to 11 there was a reception. From 11 to 12:30 services. Dr. J. A. Savage preached a touching, tender, uplifting sermon; the venerable Tom Putman prayed; the choir, led by faithful Foster Ruggles, sang; good old Green Fitch exhorted; Messrs. Meadows and Ruggles "lifted" the collection; after which there was a real old-fashioned Methodist love feast. It carried those present away back to the days of long ago. One man remarked at the close, "They say 'Tabor is dry' that 'Bethel is dry,' but I have seen more wet eyes to-day than I have in many years."

We can truly say with the poet—
"There is a spot to me more dear than native vale or mountain; a spot from which affection's tears spring grateful from each fountain," and that spot is "Old Bethel," made sacred by its burying-ground, where sleep so many dear, faithful ones—"waiting for the judgement day;" its sweet recollections of Christian association in the years long gone by; its fond remembrances of frolic and fun, joy and sorrow, struggle and victory in and around the old log school house that stands in its shadow where many as children learned the three "R's" and started out in the world to carve their names as high on the roll of fame as it was possible for man or woman to use a chisel. Not one word, or even thought as to the failures.

The family reunion and dinner were enjoyed on the hill, at the old homestead with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson, the latter being a granddaughter of John P. Savage, the former a grandson of uncle Tom Henderson of postoffice fame. The dinner! Don't mention it. It was just such a dinner as these Savage women are capable of serving when they are at their best,—that tells the story.

Those who enjoyed this feast were Mr. and Mrs. Mordecai Williams, Mrs. Eliza Owens, Dr. J. A. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson, Will Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs.

Green Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. George Barkley, Bruce Barkley and Adrian Trimble who, by the way, is a representative of the fifth generation reared in that "old home on top of the hill."

James Herndon, of near Needmore, Nicholas County, claims the distinction of being the oldest living person in Kentucky. He was 103 years of age the 7th day of the present month, having been born January 7, 1798.

At Catlettsburg Monday, in instructing the grand jury, Judge Kenner referred to the violence threatened Gibson, the child murderer, by a mob, and said that if there was any popular interference he would impanel grand juries until every member of the mob had been indicted.

Archbishop Elder, twelve bishops and numerous other dignitaries of the Catholic Church participated in the dedication of the new Cathedral at Covington. The building is modeled after the great Notre Dame in Paris, and was erected at a cost of $250,000. Bishop Spalding pronounced it the most magnificent structure of the kind in the West.

The next regular meeting of the Mason County Medical Society will be held Wednesday at the home of Dr. Thomas E. Pickett on Wall street. An interesting session is anticipated, as a soldier boy of the Ninth Infantry who was shot through the body at Tien Tsin last July will be present and recount his experiences on that bloody field.

Mrs. Bridget Burns died Monday morning at 11:30, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Weaver, 304 West Second street, after a lingering illness of several weeks, caused by paralysis. She was sixty-nine years of age. The funeral will take place Wednesday at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church. Burial at Washington. Three daughters and one son survive Mrs. Burns—two of them living in this city and two in Cincinnati.

TAKEN TO CATLETTSBURG.

Gibson, the Child Murderer, Goes Back To Stand Trial for a Heinous Crime.

Sheriff R. A. Field of Boyd County and Mr. J. Earley Storkwell, of Catlettsburg, arrived on the 6:20 train this morning after Wm. Gibson, the alleged child murderer who has been in the Maysville jail the last month or two for safe-keeping. The officers left on the 10 o'clock train with the accused, and are due at Catlettsburg about 1:30 o'clock.

An indictment against Gibson will be reported to-day, but at the time the crime was committed it was said he would never be given a trial. The feeling against him was intense and it was the belief that the people would take the law in their own hands when he was returned to that city. Sheriff Field stated this morning that he did not fear mob violence, but it may be another Coleman case.

Gibson was seen at 9 o'clock and asked if he had anything to say about the charge against him.

"Nothing," he replied, dropping his eyes as usual when such questions are put to him.

He was then told the County Attorney of Boyd felt sure of convicting him.

"Well, if they do that they'll have to swear to a lot of lies," he responded.

Gibson is looking much better than when he was brought here. Other prisoners in the jail say he has slept but little, the last night or two.

Daniel Boone, of Adams Co., O., and Miss Ora M. Pence, of Springdale, were married last evening at the home of the bride's last father, Squire W. H. Hook. The groom is a descendant of the old Kentucky pioneer.

We have so many useful and beautiful articles in sterling silver, cut glass, bric-a-brac, &c., suitable for wedding presents. Among our great variety to choose from you cannot fail to find just what you want. BALLENGER, jeweler and optician.

Rev. S. S. Deering, one of the oldest ministers of the Kentucky Conference, died at his home in Nicholasville Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, aged eighty-six years. He was the father of Ben Deering, founder of the Lexington Transcript, and uncle of Rev. Jno. R. Deering, of Lexington. He organized the Deering camp grounds at Park's Hill, in Nicholas County, also the one at High Bridge. His remains were buried at Nicholasville Monday.

Brought Good Fortune.

A small item in his own paper lately brought amazing good fortune to Editor Chris. Reitter, of the Saginaw (Mich.) Post and Zeitung. He and his family had the grip in its worst form. Their doctor did them no good. Then he read that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds was a guaranteed cure for la grippe and all throat and lung troubles; tried it and says: "Three bottles cured the whole family. No medicine on earth equals it." Only 50c. and $1 at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store. Trial bottles free.

Is It Malaria or Alum?

[Popular Science Monthly.]

Languor, loss of appetite, indigestion and often feverishness are the common symptoms of a physiological condition termed "malaria." All these symptoms may be and frequently are the effect of the use of alum baking powders in food making. There is no question about the poisonous effect of alum upon the system. It obstructs digestion, prostrates the nerves, coagulates and devitalizes the blood. All this has been made clear, thanks to physicians, boards of health and food commissions. So "highly injurious to the health of the community" does the eminent head of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Barker, consider the alum baking powders, that he says "their sale should be prohibited by law."

Under these circumstances it is worth the while of every housewife to employ the very little care that is necessary to keep so dangerous an element from the food of her family.

A pure cream of tartar baking powder, which is the only kind that should be used, ought to cost 45 or 50 cents a pound. Therefore, if you are paying much less, something is wrong; if you are paying 25 cents or less per pound, the powder is certainly made from alum.

Always bear these simple facts in mind when purchasing baking powder.

A peculiar accident occurred in a Western town recently. The big iron safe in a shoe factory refused to open, and the bookkeeper and engineer conceived the idea that they could burn out the combination by use of carbon and electricity. It took several hours to accomplish their purpose, but they finally succeeded, but not until they had stood for several hours in the glare of the electric light, taking turns at holding the wire and carbon. When the work was over both complained of a dizziness and pain in the head which increased as the hours passed, and in a short time both went suddenly blind at about the same time. All efforts to restore their sight have been unavailing, for while the eye balls appear all right, the sight is destroyed.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 23, 1899. Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

BOND'S

ASTHMA, HAY FEVER and RHEUMATISM

CURE

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptom take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.

IF YOU WANT TO HELP BUILD UP THE TOWN

Induce your friends to patronize the manufacturing concerns already established here. If there is one institution more than any other that the citizens of this section should encourage with their patronage, it is the JAMES H. HALL PLOW COMPANY, whose fame extends even to South America and Mexico. This firm's long and honorable career should win for them a large local trade. There is no need to buy Plows of a foreign make when implements of such worth are turned out here at home. Nothing but the best material is used in any of their products, and the models are of the latest and most improved styles. No Plow is allowed to leave their works which is not only perfect in make, but superior in workmanship and material, and prices are as low as the same quality can be furnished by any other Plow factory in the United States. Another advantage that should not be overlooked is the fact that repairs can be quickly supplied, obviating the necessity of long waits, so often the case when using plows of foreign manufacture.
